ENGLISH USER MANUAL

- The drinking bottle explained

Components

1. Massage gun
2. 4 attachments
3. Carry and storage bag

The massage gun (1) is a 'gun' because it 'shoots' back and forth all the time. By placing the correct attachment on the massage gun, you can relax the muscles in your body.

The massage gun can be set in 6 positions, where 1 is the slowest position and 6 is the highest position, then the headpiece on which the attachment is mounted moves the fastest.

The massage gun comes with 4 attachments (2). Each attachment feels different against your body, so each attachment is intended for a different part of your body. For more information, look through the enclosed ebook 'Sporten - Warming up & Cooling down'.

Everything comes in a carrying and storage case (3), in this case the massage gun complete with all the supplied accessories can be easily carried and stored.
